

GREENHORNS - MAINE SAIL FREIGHT

Present

TTIP Picnic

Public Concert & Training

Thompson's Point PORTLAND

July 20th, 5pm - Dusk

100% Spirit of the Future
100% Regional Food

Concert Schedule

Celebrating Virtuous Trade +
Watershed + Regional Food +
Decrying Monopoly &
Toxic Chemicals

5pm Will Dailey

6pm Paul Harty, Sea Shanties

7pm The Parlor

8pm Milk and Honey Rebellion

9pm Special Guests

Teach-in on the impact of proposed TTIP legislation on New England Dairy and small farmers
by Alex Beauchamp, Northeast Regional Director of Food and Water Watch.

A poetic revolt by farmers.
And we are hungry!

A free concert and short teach-in on free trade agreement and maritime history, part of the Maine Sail Freight project, delivering 11 tons of Maine-grown food to Boston by Sail!

Throughout the afternoon: Grilled picnic items for purchase from Brookford Farm

Pre book your day-sail on the Piscataqua at www.gundalow.org