

Greenhorns presents

Maine Sail Freight

A peaceful armada for regional food and farming economy

August 11, 2015
Hallowell, Maine

Farmers Market 4- 8pm

Schedule of events:

- 4:00 pm Meet the sailors, touch the boats
- 4:30 - 5:15 pm Load cargo + send off Bennett Konesni of worksongs.org
- 6 pm Maine Grains from sheaf to loaf with Sam Mudge of Grange Corner Farm
- 7pm Craft Beer "Fast-track Teach-In" Location TBD with local policy makers

This event was made possible due to invaluable partnership + support from:

Crown O' Maine Organic Cooperative, Fiddler's Green Farm, Penescot Marine Museum, Scholarshipwrights of Rockland & Sheepscot General

We thank particularly- Arista, Taryn & Marada whose virtues + praises cannot be sung loudly enough

Boats Sailing

Seaweed tastings

Authentic hardtack by Dusty Dowse

Books to read Arts & Crafts for children, the 'rulers of the future'.

For more information about sail freight events, adventures or to order cargo visit www.thegreenhorns.net/mainesailfreight

The Mighty
Kennebec
River Basin

AUGUSTA

Farmers Market
& Events

Hallowell
a small town, on a long river,
in a tall state...

M. J. G. 2015
all rights reserved